EPIDEMIC OF TALK

Knox, Hughes, and Taft All Scheduled for Speeches.

Secretary Taft, who has gone to Bos ton, where he is expected to set forth his views on important national issues in a speech to the Merchants' Association, is by no means the only candidate for President who is seeking opporunity to let the country know where of moment in next year's campaign.

As yet Governor Hughes of New York has been as silent as the tomb on national questions, but he is expected soon to declare himself. He has accepted the invitation to be the principal speaker at the annual banquet of the Union League Club of Chicago February 22, Washington's birthday.

There has been much criticism of the movement to nominate Hughes from the supporters of other candidates on tional matters are absolutely unknown. It is not known to a certainty whether he wants to revise the tariff or to rule corporations and railroads with an fron hand, or whether he has any ideas as to a greater navy or as to the con-

WEAKNESS IN NAVY, GOODRICH ADMITS

New York Commandant Sent His Criticisms to Secretary.

CHICAGO, Dec. 30 .- That the charges of glaring weakness in the equipment of the United States navy are true, and that they have been repeatedly called to the attention of the Government by naval officers, was admitted by Rear Admiral C. F. Goodrich, commandant of the New York Navy Yard, who stopped in Chicago on his way to San Diego, Cal., where he will direct the unreiling of a monument to the sailors of the Pacific squadron killed in the Ben-

To the $3,500 that has been put up as prize money by the city for the marching clubs in the shooters' parade have been added other sums by individuals and associations. These bring the total to more than $5,000.

FIGHT ON LIQUOR SALES BEGINS IN MISSISSIPPI

JACKSON, Miss., Dec. 30.-Dr. W. T. Lowery, president of the Mississippi College and chairman of the State Prohibition committee, has issued this appeal, which opens a campaign for constitutional prohibition in Mississippi: "The time is probably now upon us when the majority of grown white people in every county desire the abolition of the dram shop. Sister States are out-of the dram shop. Sister States are outlawing the saloon, and our great State ought not to lag behind.

"Your committee desires to ask the Legislature to adopt a statute which will make the laws now in force in local-option counties apply to all Mississippl. We hope that the same Legislature will afterward submit a constitutional amendment to the people and give them a chance to make any law authorizing dram shops unconstitional."

the illegal enterprise.

NEW YORK, Dec. 30.—Lottery tickets are cropping up in large numbers on the east side and the entire New York staff of postoffice inspectors, headed by Chief Walter S. Mayer, is trying to run down the promoters and agents of the illegal enterprise.

There is an opinion in some quarters that many of these tickets are bogus and that they are being sold quietly to unsuspecting foreigners as genuine. This phase of the case is also being looked into by Inspector McCafferty and his force of central office detectives. he stands on the questions that will be that many of these tickets are bogus and that they are being sold quietly to Roosevelt men in New York are accusing him of being hostile to the Roosevelt policies. For such reasons as these, what he may say in Chicago will be awaited with unusual interest.

Senator Knox, too, is setting out to let the country know more about his views. He has accepted an invitation to make an address at the annual dinner of the Lincoln Club of Kalamazoo, Mich., February 11. February 12 is Lincoln day, but prior to receiving the Michigan invitation Senator Knox had agreed to attend the banquet of the Pittsburg Chamber of Commerce February 12. Senator Burrows, who extended the Michigan invitation to Senator Knox, accordingly arranged matters so he could attend both banquets.

Pawn Necessities to Gamble.

The tickets are being sold among the poorer classes, who are too ignorant in many cases to read the English in which they are printed. Instances are known where these poor people save their money for the purpose of buying tickets, and if they have not the requisite amount of cash they pawn some useful article so as to get the money with which to purchase a chance to get back home and live in affluence all the rest of their lives.

Having sold the tickets for one drawlard to the province of the agent to call among the people and encourage a prize.
